

As part of our ongoing commitment to the success of our practitioner partners, we're proud to introduce the CooperVision Online Learning Center, an invaluable training, continuing education and information resource.

Designed for your entire practice -

There's something here for everyone in your office, no matter what their level of experience with contact lenses. We even have OD-level video courses eligible for CE credit.

All yours, all free of charge -

Whether you and your colleagues utilize the entire online course catalog, or just a portion of it, CooperVision will pick up the tab - including courses hosted by our partners, CLSA and AOA.

The below steps are to assist in registering and getting started on our new Online Learning Center.

1. In your web browser, type in <http://learning.coopervision.com> This will bring immediately to our Online Learning Center
2. First time users of our Online Learning Center will need to register prior to logging in.
3. To register click on "Don't have an account? Register now". This is located to the right of the Username and Password Log In button:

4. This will bring you directly to our Registration Form:
